

ICE BREAKER:

What place in the world would you still like to travel to and why?

ENCOUNTER:

Group members read quietly the words of the old hymn below. Then have folks share what words from the song spoke particularly to them. Finish by using the words of this song to inspire a time of prayer.

Facing a task unfinished
That drives us to our knees
A need that, undiminished
Rebukes our slothful ease
We, who rejoice to know Thee
Renew before Thy throne
The solemn pledge we owe Thee
To go and make Thee known

Where other lords beside Thee
Hold their unhindered sway
Where forces that defied Thee
Defy Thee still today
With none to heed their crying
For life, and love, and light
Unnumbered souls are dying
And pass into the night

We go to all the world
With kingdom hope unfurled
No other name has power to save
But Jesus Christ The Lord

We bear the torch that flaming
Fell from the hands of those

Who gave their lives proclaiming
That Jesus died and rose
Ours is the same commission
The same glad message ours
Fired by the same ambition
To Thee we yield our power.

FOCUS: “Each one Reach one Please God.”

This Sunday we had a message by Simon Guillebaud.

Take time to share what came out of Sunday’s message and what you felt God was saying to you and to EMBC. For folks that were not there you might need to fill them in on the background of the talk.
